Re: State of Washington & State of Minnesota v. Trump, Case No. 17-35105
Skycatch, Inc.'s Joinder Letter in Lieu of Amicus Brief

To The Court and Counsel:

On behalf of Skycatch, Inc., ("Skycatch") and pursuant to Circuit Advisory Committee Note to Rule 29-1, we submit this letter to express Skycatch's endorsement of and joinder in the factual assertions and arguments submitted on February 5, 2017 by the Movants in their Motion for Leave to File Brief of Technology Companies and Other Business as Amicus Curiae in Support of Appellees and attached Brief (ECF No. 19).

Skycatch is a company headquartered in San Francisco, California that provides specialized hardware and software solutions to domestic and international clients in a variety of industries, including construction, mining, and energy. Skycatch employees are highly specialized workers with unique skillsets who must engage in international travel as part of their essential job functions.

Some of Skycatch's workers, current and future, are or may be non-citizens who legally reside and work in the United States and who are or may be adversely impacted by the Executive Order issued on January 27, 2017, "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States," (the "Executive Order"). Specifically, the Executive Order places Skycatch in the untenable position of violating both the U.S. Constitution and a variety of non-discrimination statutes by examining the country of origin of applicants and considering whether a job applicant will be prohibited from international travel under the Executive Order in its hiring decisions. Additionally, Skycatch joins in the assertion that the effects of the Executive Order are unfair and represent a significant departure from the longstanding values embodied in the US immigration system.

Very truly yours,
